Arrival & Departure Procedures

Terminal 2 departure route (International flights)

If departing, please go to the departure lobby on the 3th floor. Please allow yourself plenty of time to complete the check-in.

Airline Check-in Counters

Terminal 2

Go to the airline check-in counter and present your passport and air ticket. Please receive your boarding pass.

Please check in all your baggage other than that which you will carry on the aircraft yourself, and receive baggage claim receipts.

* Passengers on travel agency group tours should complete departure and boarding procedures as instructed at the travel agency counter.

* Passengers traveling to the United States need to apply for travel authorization via ESTA (Electronic System for Travel Authorization). In addition to the information recorded in their passports, passengers traveling to the United States are required to submit information, including their destination address, via their airline in advance.

Things to Prepare

- Passport
- Air ticket

Baggage and security inspections are performed on all passengers for security reasons.

Show your boarding pass to the security officer and place your carry-on baggage on the X-ray scanner conveyor belt. Each passenger must pass, one at a time, through the metal detector gate for security inspection. When the security check is completed, please go to outbound passport control.

Things to Prepare

- Boarding pass

If you are carrying cash in excess of 1 million yen (100 thousand yen when you are bound for North Korea), please go to the Customs counter and complete the relevant procedures.

If taking foreign goods, such as the watch you are currently using, necklaces, etc., out of Japan, please go to the Customs counter and complete the relevant procedures.

Things to Prepare

- Notification of taking foreign goods out of Japan
- Declaration of Carrying of Means of Payment, etc.
- Import declaration

Present your passport and boarding pass at the passport control counter. Once your passport has been stamped, passport control procedures are over, and you have officially "departed" from Japan. Please enjoy shopping at the duty-free shops while you wait to board.

Wheelchair passengers may use the wider lane beside the Immigration office window.

After the passport control check is completed, go to your boarding gate. If your boarding gate is in the Satellite Building, please take the shuttle.

See the website of the Immigration Bureau, Ministry of Justice for information about how to use the automated gates at outbound passport control.
