I can confirm today that I will be staying at Midtown Richardson the 1st 2 nights. On the 20th I will check out and move to Novotel at Taoyuan as flight is early next day. Looking forward to seeing you. I know we are no longer young. I feel it every day, hahahaha.

I will be coming to Taipei on Monday afternoon, September 18 and leaving early morning of 21st. I will probably stay at Midtown Richardson Hotel because both Jovie and I liked the area near pedestrian street etc. Unfortunately, Jovie cannot come with me as she is too darn busy with her restaurant that entire week. So, we can probably have dinner or lunch depending on what is convenient for you. Just note that I probably would not be available for dinner on the 18th before 7PM to be sure I can get there in time. I arrive (supposedly) at 3:30PM, but then there is customs, pick up portable wifi, take MRT to Taipei and then a short cab ride to hotel. If you want Monday, I can definitely call you if you want when I arrive at hotel....

Let me know what you would like to do.
