

Consent to disclose your information.

Sharing your tax information with TaxSmart Research LLC, a sister company to TaxAct, can save you time and effort with your finances. The IRS requires us to get your consent before disclosing information from your tax return for the below purposes. With your OK, your tax information will be shared with TaxSmart Research LLC.

Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. Unless authorized by law, we cannot disclose your tax return information to third parties for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return without your consent. If you consent to the disclosure of your tax return information, Federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use or distribution.

You are not required to complete this form to engage our tax return preparation services. If we obtain your signature on this form by conditioning our tax return preparation services on your consent, your consent will not be valid. Your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year from the date of signature.

By clicking "I Agree", I, Rodney L Larson, authorize TaxAct to disclose to TaxSmart Research LLC, a sister company to TaxAct, my 2020 tax return information (excluding all Social Security Numbers and any dependents' personally identifiable information) along with similar information from prior years as needed, so they can develop, offer, and provide products and services tailored to or that may interest me, including:

- Unlocking custom tax tips to help save now and in the long-term
- Further personalizing the tax-filing experience next tax season
- Receiving exclusive offers and discounts
- Being among the first to know about new products and services

TaxSmart Research LLC may use service providers and business partners to accomplish these tasks. You are consenting to allow this disclosure through December 31, 2024.
