

Home > Route & Maps > Narita Express > Tickets

Tickets

N'EX is a limited express train with all reserved seating. Both a fare ticket and a limited express ticket are required for boarding. Tickets may be purchased at Narita Airport station, JR Ticket Offices (Midori-no-madoguchi), Travel Service Centers (View Plaza) and reserved seat ticket machines.

Fares and charges from/to Narita Airport Terminal 1 and 2

In addition to the following regular train tickets, the Suica & N'EX is an excellent option for discount train travel in the Tokyo area. Additionally, Suica can also be used for other public transportation and shopping. Click here for details.

To		Ordinary Cars	Green Cars (first class)
Narita Airport Terminal 1 Narita Airport Terminal 2	↔ Tokyo	2,940 yen	4,430 yen
	↔ Shinagawa	3,110 yen	4,600 yen
	↔ Shibuya
	↔ Shinjuku
	↔ Ikebukuro	3,740 yen	5,230 yen
	↔ Omiya
	↔ Yokohama	4,180 yen	5,670 yen
	↔ Ofuna	4,500 yen	5,990 yen

- If all the seats on a train are reserved, limited express tickets for standing may be purchased at a rate 510 yen less than reserved seat tickets.
- Reserved seat tickets are 200 yen lower during the off-season and 200 yen higher during the busy season.
- The discount for children ages 6 to 11 is 50% of the adult fare for basic fare tickets. Any amount less than 10 yen is rounded off.
- There is no children's discount for Green Car tickets.
- Babies (up to 12 months) and infants (1 to 5) generally travel free, though a child's ticket is needed in the following cases:
 1. When three or more infants accompany one adult or a child, child's tickets are needed for the third and subsequent infants.
 2. When an infant or a baby occupies its own reserved seat or berth.
 3. When an infant travels alone.

The conditions shown are subject to change.

Purchasing tickets

Limited express tickets for the N'EX go on sale in Japan one month in advance. Tickets may be purchased at Narita Airport station, JR Ticket Offices (Midori-no-madoguchi), Travel Service Centers (View Plaza) and reserved seat ticket machines.

Reservations can be made from overseas through JR-EAST Shinkansen Reservation, though conditions apply for prior day purchases.

When traveling from Narita Airport, it is recommended that travelers purchase their N'EX tickets after arriving.

To make a N'EX reservation bound for Narita Airport over the Internet, click here.

Note that conditions apply to prior day purchases. Fare tickets must be purchased in Japan.

Japan Rail Pass or JR East Pass holders can make seat reservations without additional payment, click here for more information.

JR EAST Travel Service Center

Conveniently located at Narita Airport Terminal 1 and 2, the JR EAST Travel Service Centers provide information on tickets and accommodations to make your stay in Japan a pleasant one.

Click here for more details >>

JR Ticket Office (Midori-no-madoguchi)

Basic fare tickets, limited express tickets and reserved Green Car tickets may purchased at JR Ticket Offices (Midori-no-Madoguchi) for all Shinkansen lines and limited-express trains throughout Japan including N'EX.

Major Station Maps >>

Travel Service Center (View Plaza)

Visit the Travel Service Centers to purchase tickets for various events in addition to tickets for JR train lines, domestic flights and other travel. Note that there are no Travel Service Centers (View Plaza) located in Narita Airport.

Major Station Maps >>

Go back to Narita Express

Go back to Route & Maps

Go back to home

Page Top

Privacy Policy | Terms of Use | Sitemap | Maps & Guides | Links

Copyright © East Japan Railway Company All Rights Reserved.