

Kyoto
Gion

Yasaka Hall: Gion Corner

Inquiries

TEL: +81-(0)75-561-1119

Enjoy the dances performed by maiko right before your eyes.
Performances of traditional Japanese arts and crafts

Kyo-mai Dance, Flower Arrangement, Tea Ceremony,
Gagaku Court Music, Kyogen Theatre, Bunraku Puppetry

Lose yourself in traditional performing arts in the heart of Kyoto's Gion district.

Gion Corner is a place where you can take in seven kinds of performance, notably kyo-mai dance performed by maiko dancers. Here you can enjoy traditional performing arts in 'digest' form all on one stage. Located next to the Gion Kobu Kaburenjo Theatre, the spot has a very intimate atmosphere. It is popular with Japanese and foreign tourists.

There is also a Maiko Gallery, where the hair decorations worn by maiko and other items are on display.

Performance guide

Date and time of performances	Everyday PM6:00~、PM7:00~ From December till March of the 2nd week of the month Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays are open.
Closed day	7/16、 8/16、 12/29~1/3

Admission

For that you can get familiar with Japanese culture, We've started the special.

Individuals ¥2,500 (Limited Time Discount Period)
 ●Jul. 1st ~ Sep. 30th for Summer vacation
 ●Nov. 1st ~ Nov. 30th for day
 ●Dec. 1st ~ Feb. 28th for season ¥2,200 (16~22 years old)
 ¥1,900 (7~15 years old)
 Groups ¥2,200 (over 20 people)
 School trips ¥1,000 (7~15 years old)
 ¥1,300 (16~18 years old)

Kyo-mai Dance

Originating in Kyoto, kyo-mai is an elegant dance performed by maiko dancers in dress.

Flower Arrangement

The art of creating and enjoying arranged flowers and other materials.

Tea Ceremony

This is the stylized tradition of steeping guests. The Corner performs the "ryur Ceremony, seating on stools, for visitors from countries not used to kneeling on tatami.

Koto Zither

The koto is an ancient Japanese six-stringed instrument traditionally played with ivory plectrum producing wonderful harmonies.

Gagaku Court Music

Gagaku is the name for indigenous Japanese dance performed at the imperial court. Gion Corner offers maigaku performance dance.

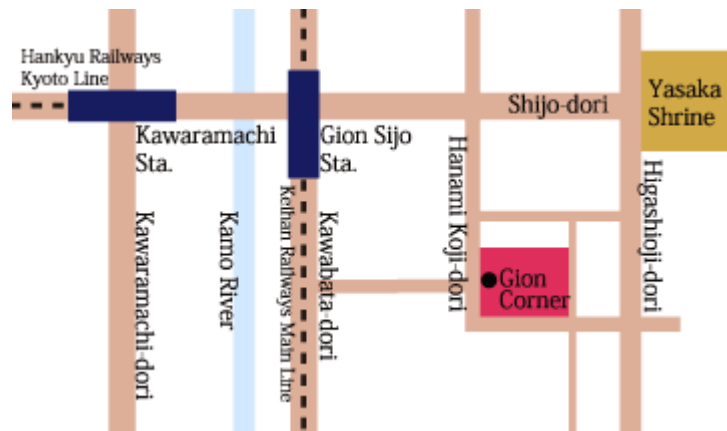

Kyogen Theatre

Kyogen is a form of theatre that portrays life in a comical manner.

Bunraku Puppet Theatre

Bunraku, Japan's traditional puppet theatre, was registered on UNESCO's list of Masterpieces of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity in 2003.

How to get here

Yasaka Hall, 570-2 Minamigawa, Higashiyama-ku, Kyoto

Public transport

From JR Kyoto Station, take the Gion Line to the Gion bus stop. It is a 5-minute walk.

OR by train take the Gion Line to the Gion Station, and from there it is a 10-minute walk.

It is also a 10-minute walk from Kawaramachi Station.

〒605-0074 Yasaka Hall, 570-2 Gionmachi Minamigawa, Higashiyama-ku, Kyoto
 Kyoto Traditional Musical Art Foundation 'Ookini Zaidan'

TEL:+81-(0)75-561-1119 FAX:+81-(0)75-561-3860

Copyright 2000-2013 Ookini Zaidan. All rights reserved.

The no permission reprint and the diversion of all content placed in this homepage are prohibited. All content has received protection