First Minnetonka City Bank is making changes to the "Continuous Overdraft Charge". Effective as of April 1, 2015, a Continuous Overdraft Charge will be assessed if an account is overdrawn more than seven consecutive calendar days and reassessed after each subsequent seven calendar days that the account remains continuously overdrawn. This fee may be assessed even if the account is overdrawn due to the prior assessment of another service charge or transaction fee in accordance with the terms of your account agreement.
